Beautiful, that's the one word that best describes the campus of Winston-Salem State University. Located on the hills of east Winston, W.S.S.U. is a gleaming landmark of this progressive city.

Style ... Spirit ... Unity ... Tradition are all found in abundance at W.S.S.U. The people, the campus, the curriculum are illustrative of the continuing pursuit of excellence found at W.S.S.U.

W.S.S.U. offers a wide variety of major and minor programs within the North Carolina university system. Our wide open fields offer the best for our graduates. Whichever major you decide upon, all of the essential materials can be found. The opportunities are endless!

Our students represent 22 states and three foreign countries, several social and economic backgrounds, and a kaleidoscope of personalities. We come together on this campus to form a strong and diverse student body. Never losing our identity, we weave ourselves through four years of togetherness, emerging as fully developed individuals, changed by those whom we have touched. More complete because of the encounter, we are prepared to meet the challenges of tomorrow.

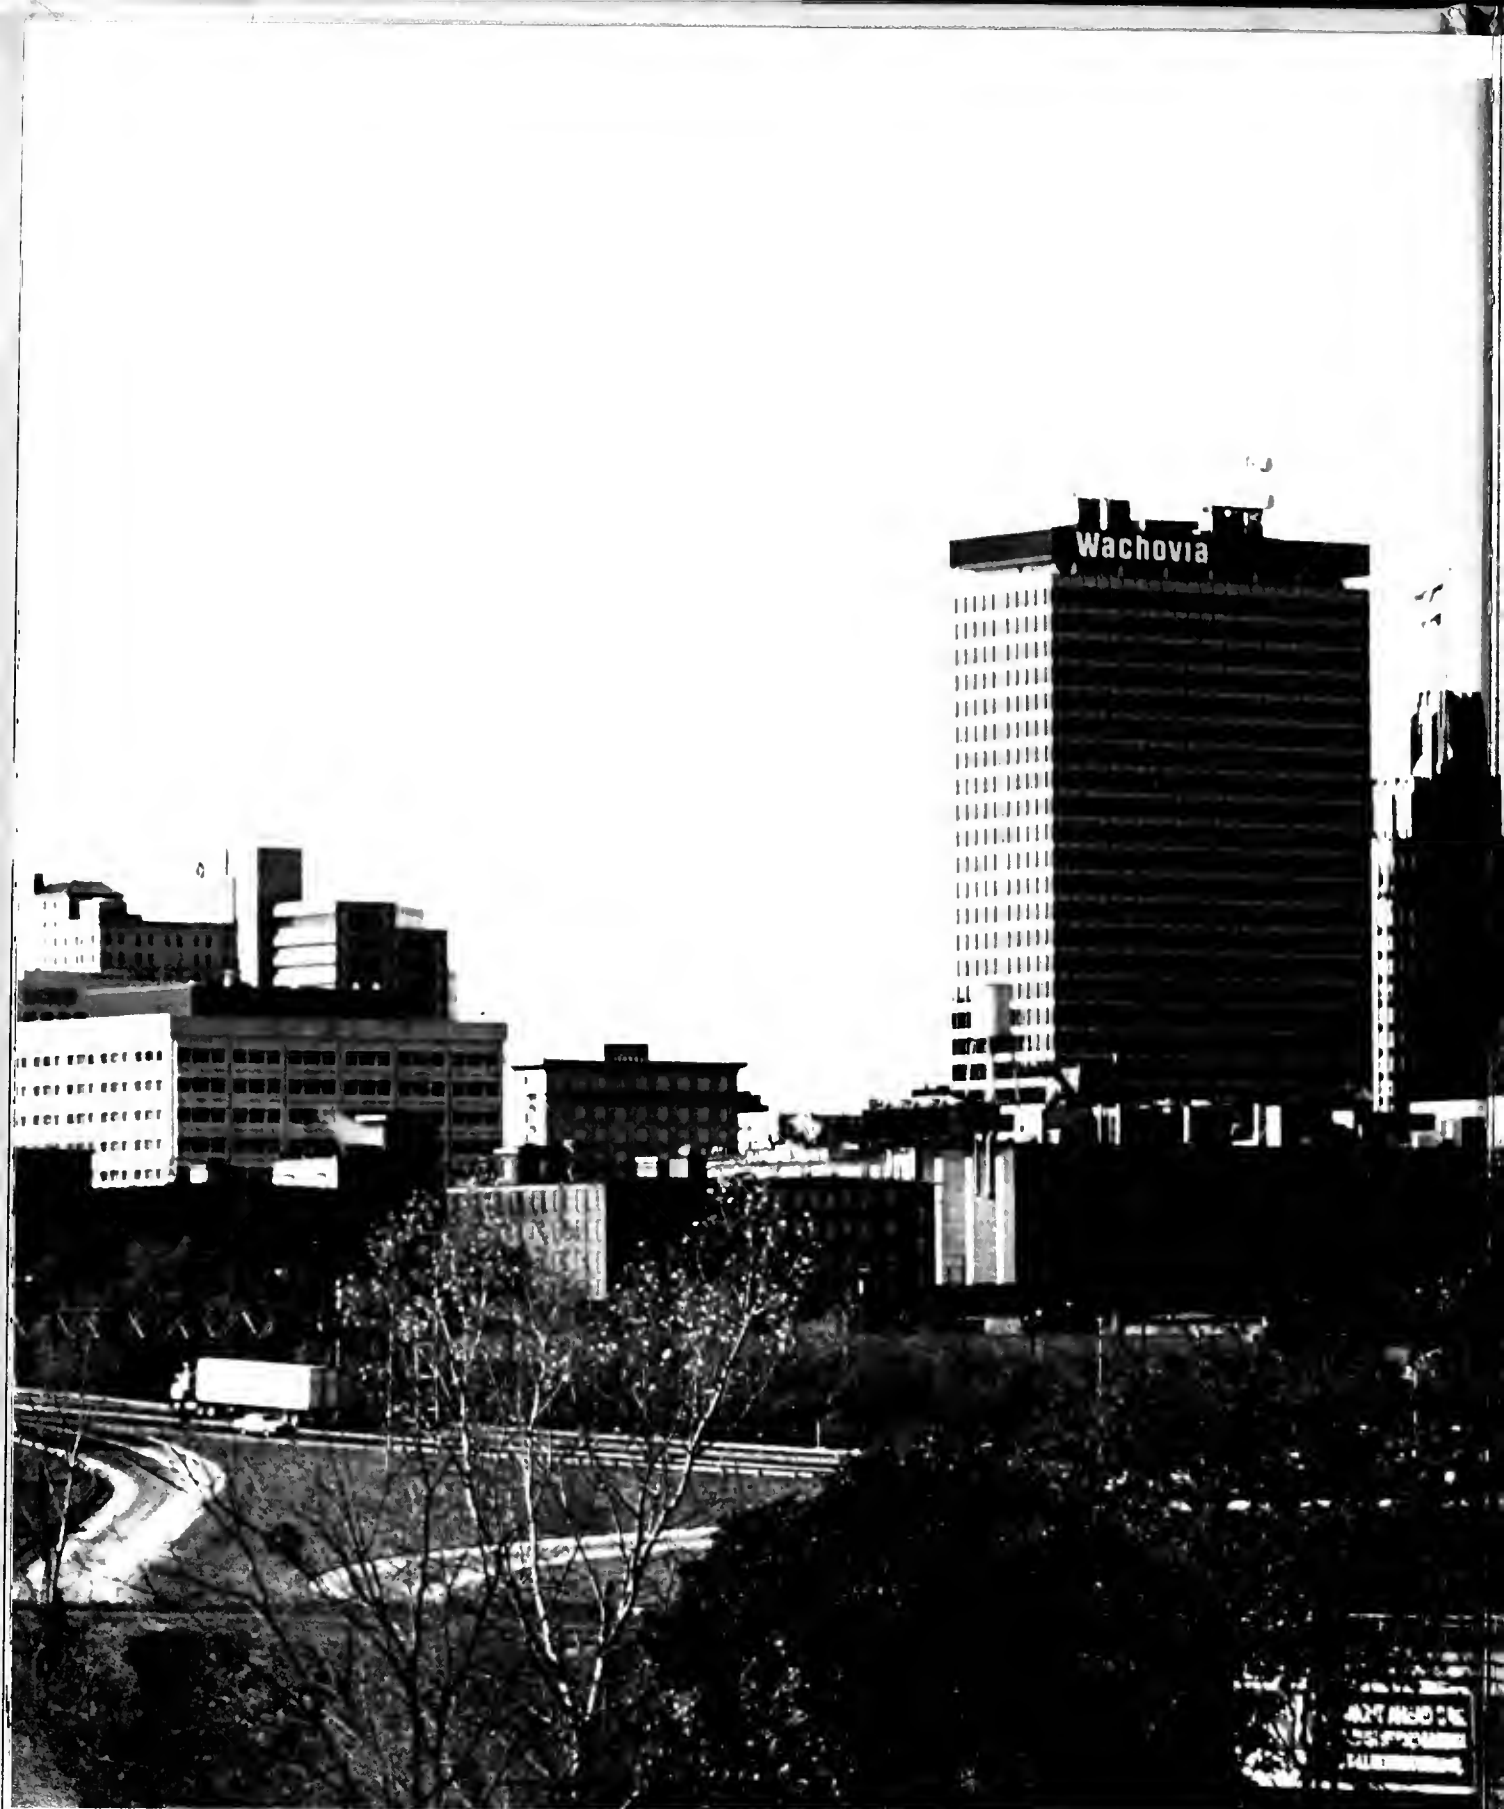

W i n s t o n - S a l e m S t a t e U n i v e r s i t y

Winston-Salem State University represents the building of the old and the new, classic revival architecture accented by contemporary structures, traditional settings, exciting new facilities, a continuum from the past to the future, all preparing the individual student for changing times.

In her endeavors to promote a level of communication conducive to her academic pledge, Winston-Salem State University reaches out to and takes in from her namesake community, to continue the cultivation of seeds planted 92 years ago.

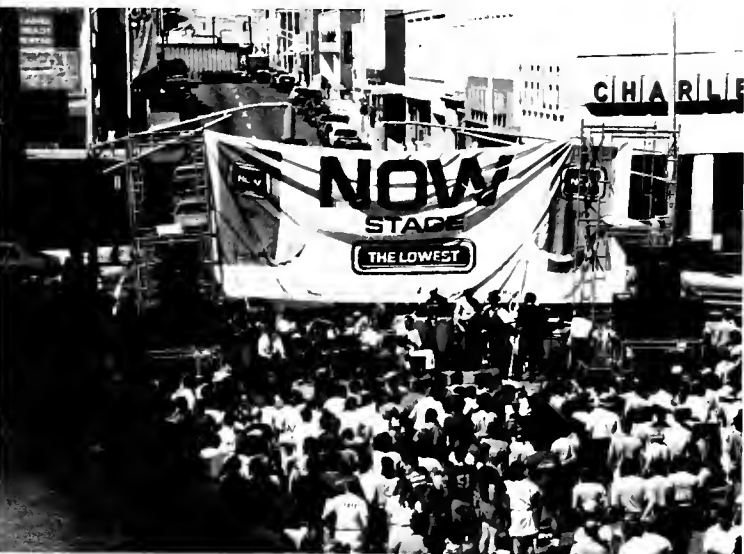

Winston-Salem is a city like no other, where achievement is nurtured, and people are inspired . . . enriched . . . motivated. Where the pace of life allows for living, and progress comes with imagination and innovation. Where climate is as moderate as costs, and education feeds art, science and industry. Where resources and opportunities are unlimited, and newcomers put down deep roots of contentment, vitality and commitment. Where commerce makes culture its business, and economic growth is a dynamic by-product.

Fertilized by the spirit of Winston-Salem, Winston-Salem State University breeds an awareness of the enduring interaction which must be maintained between the school and the community. This interaction has produced magnificent Lyceum events, participation in the Carolina Streetscene, WSSU Day sponsored by community churches and generous contributions to the community by student organizations.

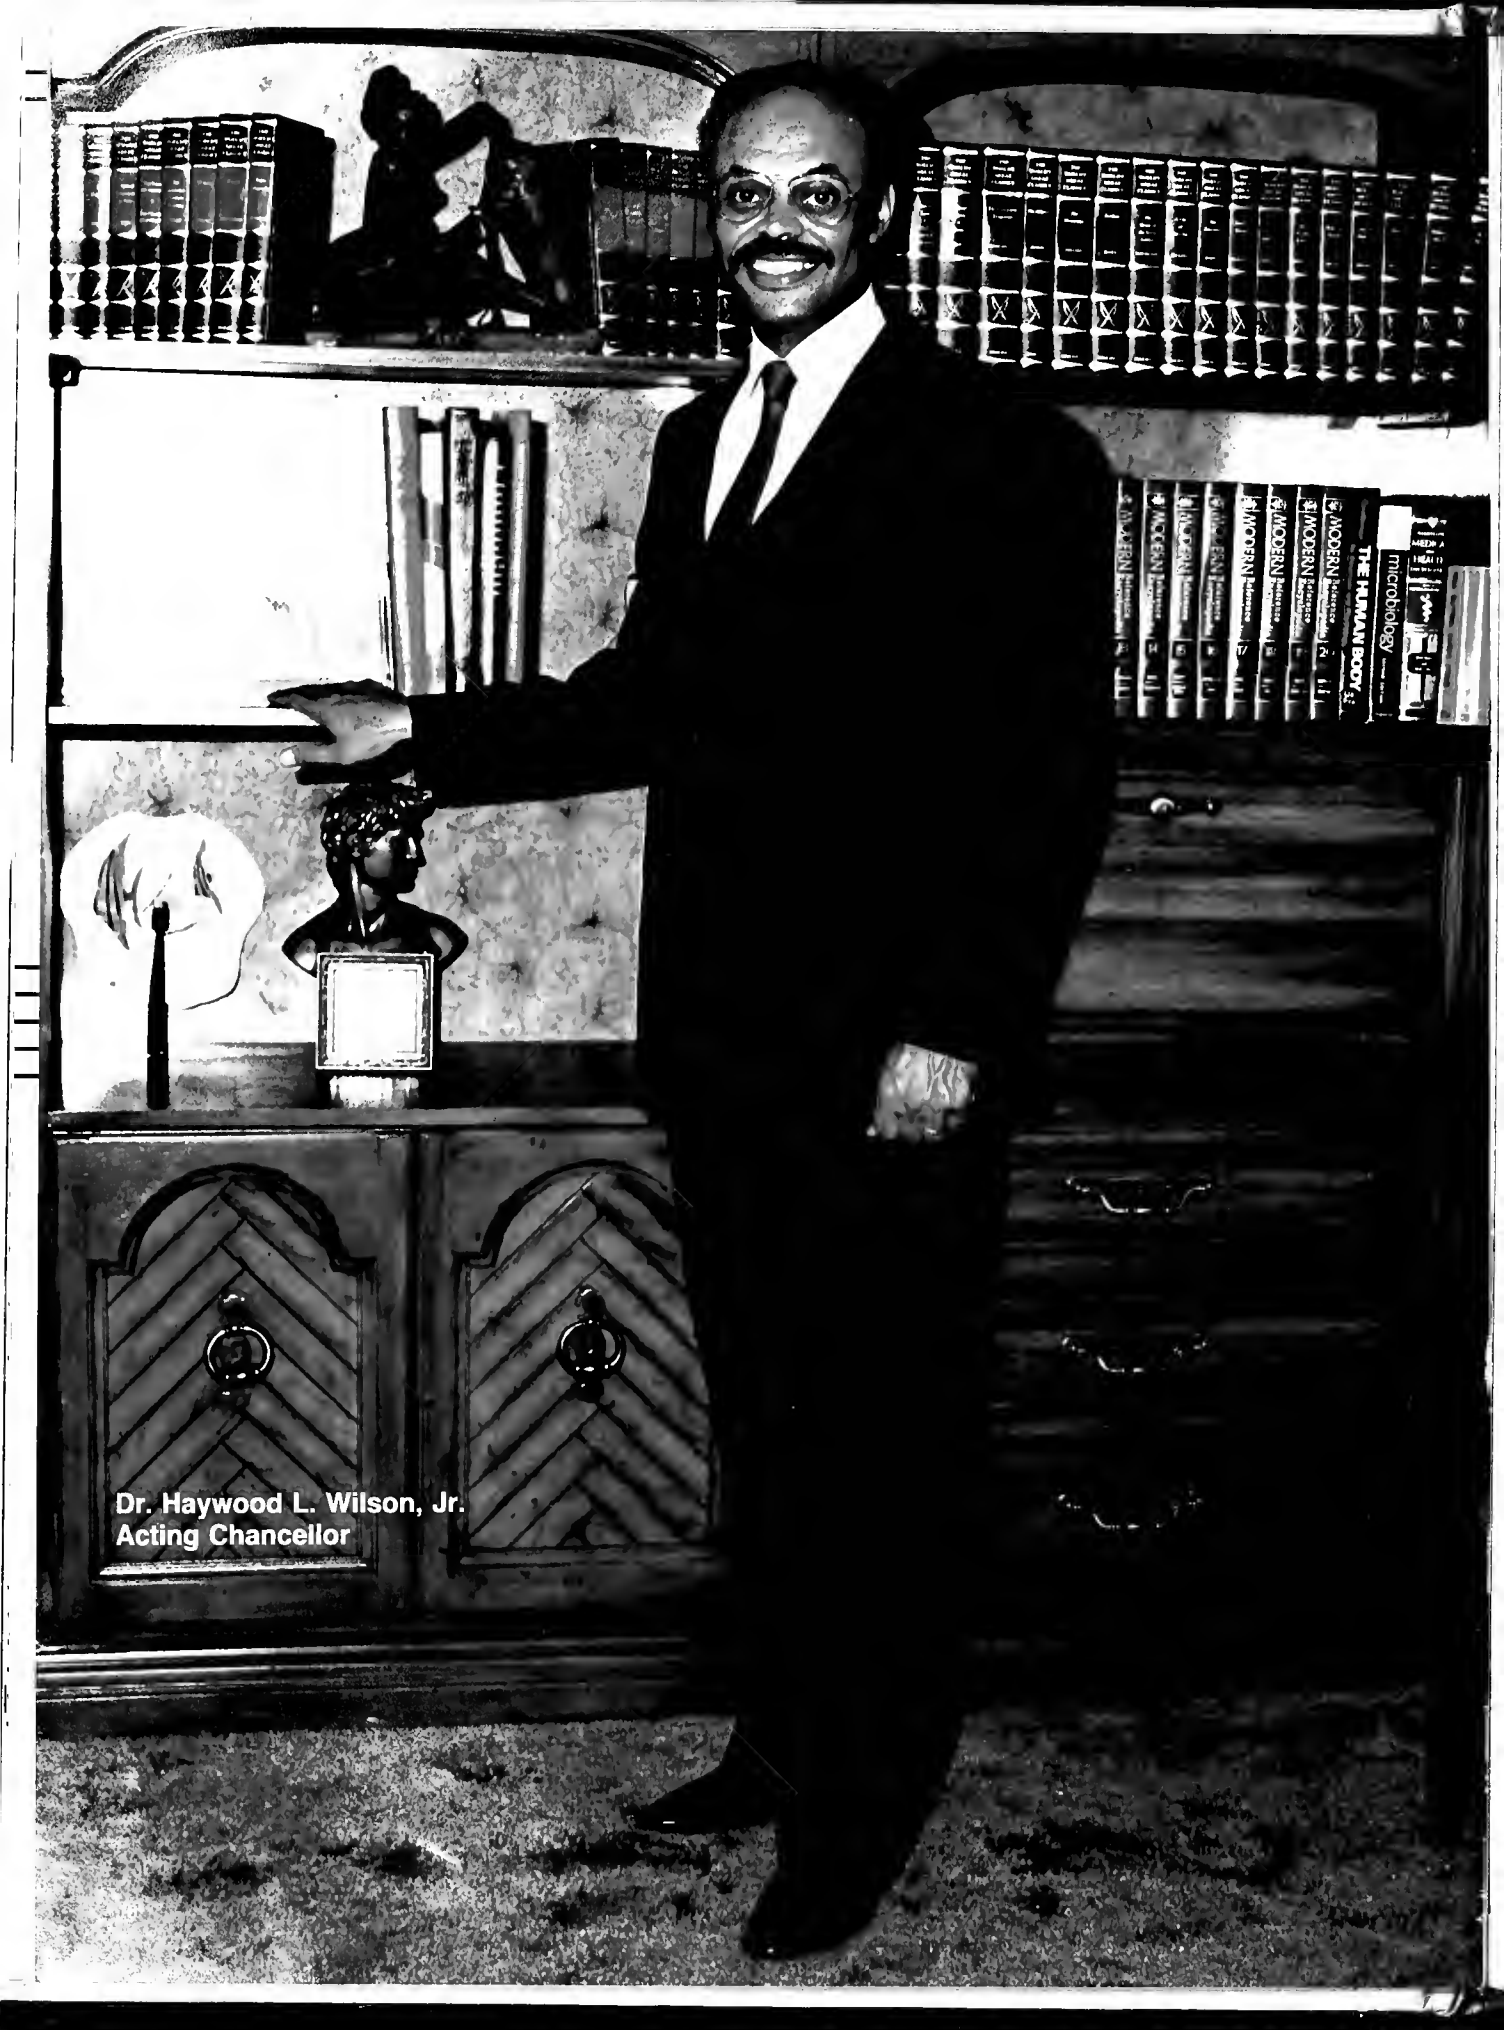

As we involve ourselves in our campus, we become aware of the larger community and the potential for growth beyond our campus world. Joining other local colleges, we reach out into the community through urban affairs to serve along with those agencies who seek to resolve urban problems and to make way for change and improvement. Our participation becomes more involved as our campus changes.

Office of the Chancellor

Dear Graduating Seniors:

We are pleased to know that you will carry from Winston-Salem State University a very important record - the 1985 Ram Yearbook. This chronicle of events, documented in such an excellent manner, is a source of pride for all of us. Year after year, it should provide encouragement and inspiration as you reflect on the joys, challenges and accomplishments experienced during one of the most important periods in your life.

We appreciate your loyalty and dedication to the University. Many of our successes resulted from contributions which you made during your tenure.

We hope that the harmony and goodwill reflected throughout this book will remain in your memory, and that your love for WSSU will continue to increase with the passing years.

As you join thousands of other WSSU graduates in a larger society, we extend to you, on behalf of the entire University family, sincere congratulations and best wishes for a productive and happy life. We share your excitement for the future.

Please keep in touch with us, and return to the WSSU campus often. We hope that you will continue to be a vital resource for your alma mater.

Sincerely,

Haywood L. Wilson, Jr.

1984 WACHOVIA EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARD WINNER

"And gladly would he learn, and gladly teach." Geoffrey Chaucer Prologue,

The Canterbury Tales

The effective teacher is a good student as Chaucer implies in Prologue, The Canterbury Tales. The Wachovia Excellence in Teaching Award recognizes those qualities in educators at Winston-Salem State University.

The $1000 award is presented annually to an instructor who has been nominated and selected on the basis of teaching effectiveness, scholarly achievement, professional participation and community service. To be eligible, nominees must have taught for at least three years at WSSU. Each must also teach at least nine semester hours per semester during the year he or she is nominated.

An ad hoc committee is appointed to screen nominations and choose a winner. The committee is comprised of four faculty members — one each from the Divisions of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Applied Arts and Sciences, Education, and Nursing — one representative, and three WSSU students. Two students are appointed by the president of the Student Government Association. All other members of the committee are appointed by the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. After evaluating the nominees, the selection committee recommends the recipient to the Chancellor.

The award is presented to the honoree during the Parents' Day/Honors Day Program each spring.

Who's Who Among American Colleges And Universities

Each year, a select number of outstanding campus leaders are recognized in an annual directory for their accomplishments. This directory contains a small percentage of academically inclined individuals from over 1,000 institutions of higher learning. "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities", first published in 1934, is meant to recognize the well-rounded college student.

Knowledge is a powerful tool that helps to open many doors. It has opened the door for twenty-nine Winston-Salem State University students. Their biographies will appear in the 1984-85 edition of "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities."

WILLIE BAKER, a native of Charlotte, North Carolina, is a junior computer science major. He has operated in such capacities as secretary of the Association for Computer Machinery, Business/Industry Cluster representative, and WSSU Honor Student. He has also received a Departmental Scholarship. Baker believes, "If a task has once begun, never leave it until it is done. Be the leader great or small, do it well or not at all". He hopes to obtain a managerial position in a computer science-oriented facility which offers growth as well as responsibility.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, BRENDA LEE BROWN is a senior computer science major. She hopes to own a successful Computer Corporation some day. She says "To set goals for yourself and always have something to strive for, because without a purpose there is no reason for achievement". Brenda is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society, the Association for Computer Machinery, the Gotham City Club, ROTC. She is also an Alpha Phi Alpha Sweetheart.

WANDA GAYE HOOTS COOPER is a senior nursing major from Advance, NC. She has been a Psychiatric RN for six years. Wanda participates in such activities as the Curriculum and Policy Committee for the Nursing Program along with various activities involving her five school age children. Wanda's philosophy is "To touch all I come in contact with in a positive manner and leave no one feeling worse for having been there".

JOAN CARTER of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is a junior nursing major. She wants to continue her education by pursuing a master's degree in the area of Psychiatric Nursing, and work as an officer for the United States Government. She operates in such areas as Day Student Association, and Student Nurses Association. Ms. Carter says "When trying to achieve any goal, despite the time, criticism, and failure, continue to strive ...!"

Who's Who

MURIEL L. GABRIEL of Newton, North Carolina is a senior art major. She enjoys drawing, painting, poetry, reading, sewing, and cooking. Muriel says that "Life is a very beautiful, but fragile thing, and by putting God before all things, I have learned to live life more fully and my self-confidence has soared." Muriel would like to work with an interior designer firm to display her own unique artistic abilities.

"A smile is like a ray of sunshine; it will eventually find its way through the darkest skies", says KELVIN G. DUNLAP, a senior computer science major from Ansonville, North Carolina. He wishes to become a leading authority in the field of Computer Science. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, and the Association for Computer Machinery.

ALICIA RENEE FLOWERS of Wilson, North Carolina, is a senior computer science major. She has operated in such capacities as Vice-President of Association for Computer Machinery and treasurer of Pegram Hall and her Senior class. In order to be successful, Ms. Flowers says to "First believe in God, next believe in yourself!" She plans to begin as a programmer and eventually become a system analyst.

SHARON FULLER from Hope Mills, North Carolina, is a senior majoring in early childhood. She has been active in such organizations as University Ushers, Student National Education Association, and Winston-Salem State University Marching Band. Fuller would like to become one of the best teachers in her field, for "It does not matter how hard the way may become . . . strive for the best!"

MADISON HARDING of Pleasant Hill, North Carolina, is a senior business administration major concentrating in Business Information Systems. He has operated in such capacities as a National Dean's List inductee, Winston-Salem State University Honor Student, Business/Industry Cluster host, Residential Assistant, and Yearbook Staff member. He believes "Confidence in oneself is the key to self-actualization, with the guidance of the Lord . . ." Madison would like to acquire a managerial position in data processing.

TONY HERRING is a junior computer science major from Faison, North Carolina. He enjoys being a member of Association for Computer Machinery and playing for the Ram football team. Hoping to work with a major corporation as a computer analyst, Tony says, "Self-discipline is the key to success".

TERESSA TUCKER HUTCHENS of Shoals, North Carolina, is a senior early childhood Education major. Hutchens is active in church, the choir, Women's Society, and the Parent Teachers Association. She says "All the flowers of all the tomorrows are in the seeds of today." Teresa's goal is to become an excellent teacher, by instilling within young children the love for learning.

ERIC BERNARD HUDSON of Charlotte, NC is a junior computer science major. He is the Director of Judicial Affairs, and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi, and he enjoys dancing, and such sports as Tennis, Racquetball, and Basketball. "Trust in God and your family and you can't go wrong!", states Eric. He hopes to own and operate a software application corporation.

A senior majoring in physical education, ANNETTE HUNTLEY is from Charlotte, NC. She enjoys softball, basketball, and being a member of the P.E. majors club and the Queen City Club. Huntley says, "Success only comes with determination, hard work, and prayer." She plans to be successful in the field of Sport's Medicine.

CRAIG T. JOHNSON is a junior English major from Jamaica, New York. Johnson says the secret to success is, "Looking to God for guidance and never losing sight of one's goals". He is the Director of Social Affairs of the Student Government Association and a member of the Northern Connection Club. Johnson intends to continue his education by obtaining a corporate law degree from a reputable school of law. He is also looking forward to being commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army Reserves.

Senior Class History

The Heart of the Chain

In the late summer of 1981, upon our arrival, we could gaze into the future and see that 1985 seemed so far away. But now we are here, and the time has passed. Ah so fast!

In the beginning, our coming together had formed a chain. As we all know, there were certain elements that could break the chain apart. We were a part of the Loc-Man, break dancing and the New Wave era.

Lesson. In time, the values of this encounter were realized, and it is now that we extend to you our thanks.

We can also look upon our class as pioneers for making our peers more aware of inter-registration and the importance of those issues.

Yes, we are the heart of the chain, and our departure does not mean that the chain will be broken. The memories that we have acquired during our years here at "Old-SM" will always keep the heart of the chain together!

As we bid Dr. Cunningham a farewell much earlier than we had expected, we also bid a farewell to "Old-SM" and to all of our friends farewell!

TO MARILYN ROSEBORO,

Thanks for your leadership and guidance, for without your patience and understanding, we would not have gotten this far! We extend to you our love and gratitude!

ALMA MATER

As we go forth from old State U.
A song of praise we sing to you.
In praises to the memory
Of days at State University
Thy sons and daughters bring thee fame
Through knowledge which we have gained
Exultingly we raise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University
As we go forth from old State U.
Good leaders we will always be,
And stand for all humanity.
As you've taught us, State University
In all we do we shall proclaim
To all the world thy teaching fame.
As we go forth we praise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.

Noah F. Ryder

HOMECOMING 1984

CLASS DAY

CORONATION OF MISS WSSU

EVELYN KING

FOUNDER'S DAY

Speaker Kenneth R. Williams, Chancellor Emeritus of Winston-Salem State University, roused an audience of faculty students, and alumni at the University's Founder's Day Convocation during Homecoming Week. Florence T. Butler, Gloria C. Gore, Wilma L. Lassiter, Charles Parker, Carrie Robinson, Andrew I. Terrell, and Bessie White were named Professors Emeritus. Joseph O. Lowery received the Simon Green Atkins Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Kevin Witherspoon — Football player because I like football.

James Singletary — SENIOR

"I have a rather unique situation. I attended WSSU for two years, left, joined the U.S. Marines for four years and now I'm back to pursue my degree. I returned to WSSU after realizing that a college education is an important and essential asset. Attending WSSU has helped me to realize my potentials and develop them. As a result, I have big plans for the future. I am thankful that the Lord made a way for me at WSSU."

Sylvia Jackson — SOPHOMORE

"I feel that becoming a success depends on the potential one possesses, not the institution they attend. If I work hard at my studies and keep the faith in myself and God, I know I will succeed."

Winston-Salem State University is culturally enriched with students from every background imagined. They are young, ambitious, wise, and soon to be successful. They all seem to have one thing in common — the pride they share in attending such a fine institution. This year, the Ram asked various members of the University Family questions concerning the positive aspects of attending a small public college. The different opinions of the randomly chosen individuals expressed a deep sense of integrity and passion. The responses proved to be as diverse as the University itself.

Carter Cue — JUNIOR

"My chances in the working world are just as good as the next college graduate regardless of the school racial percentage. Knowledge defined by our institutions of learning is not enclosed in parenthesis as black or white. Webster defines knowledge as the fact or condition of knowing something with familiarity gained. Experience and association plus Winston-Salem State University equals a quality education. These primary elements plus with a small degree of luck, will help one find true success in the world of work."

Shaun Mozingo — FRESHMAN

"Winston-Salem State University has helped me to gain a greater respect for people. By attending S.U., I know I will have a greater chance to succeed."

Sebastian Mayfield — SOPHOMORE

"By coming to WSSU, I have gained valuable communication skills, and good study habits. S.U. is situated in a picturesque environment. While expanding my degree of knowledge, I have grown as a person. Having a lot of patience, guts, and determination, success, is right around the corner for me."

Cheryl E. Alexander — FRESHMAN

"My chances in the working world as a graduate from a predominately black university as opposed to someone who graduates from a white college are very great. The college that one goes to does not mean that you will be successful in the working world. The application of that knowledge one gains determines whether or not one will do well. I have great potential for my future, I am just as qualified as anyone else."

SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT

Juanita Summers — JUNIOR

"The most positive aspect of WSSU is the programs that they have to offer such as Education, Business and Nursing. I have gained the need to achieve higher goals, instead of only being satisfied with a four year degree. I will be successful because I have the determination."

Conrad Smith — FRESHMAN

"I am an out-of-state student. I chose to attend WSSU because of all the positive statements that I had heard about it. I wanted to learn how to live on my own instead of always depending on my parents. WSSU is my home away from home. With help from God, I know I will be a successful individual."

SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT

Patrice Faison — FRESHMAN

"I feel my chances in the working world will be just as great or greater than any other college graduate. We (as blacks) are always having to prove ourselves as the capable individual; there will always be competition no matter where we go. It is not where one learns the knowledge but how well one retains it. I'm sure my future employers won't consider where I graduated from, but how much I achieved while I was there. I will always be very proud to say that I attended WSSU."

David Alston — JUNIOR

"My reason for attending Winston-Salem State University was basically, wanting to get a good education. WSSU has a wide range of curriculum which I have found comparable to even the largest university. Before coming to WSSU, I attended a community college in Massachusetts I compared many majors and found that predominately black universities are not inferior to other universities. I have found that predominately black institutions, especially WSSU, are striving to build a curriculum that all students should take advantage of. This is just one reason why I attended this university. I can honestly say that coming to ole S.U. has been a big plus in my life. I feel it has helped me to grow spiritually, educationally and socially."

Debbie Dozier — SOPHOMORE

"The most positive aspect of WSSU is the people. The students, faculty and staff are warm, caring, understanding and friendly. I have an academic advantage due to the fact that the teachers are willing to go that extra mile to assure understanding."

Jerry Shoffner — FRESHMAN

"One of the positive aspects of WSSU, is that the instructors care about you as a student and a person. WSSU has a great reputation for its academics. I think my chances in the working world are as good as anyone else's. The important thing is that you know how to sell yourself as a worker."

Janis Willard — FRESHMAN

"Coming to WSSU has made me a very independent individual. College life has enabled me to learn some important facts about living with people and making wise decisions on the allocation of time."

Charles Davis — SOPHOMORE

"Winston-Salem State University has a friendly and united atmosphere that spreads throughout the city. The pride of the university is her successful alumni; the graduates are making grand contributions to society. I attend this University for her excellent nursing program."

Anita Beasley — SOPHOMORE

"By coming to WSSU, I feel I've found myself as a black person. All cultures, especially Afro-American is emphasized by interesting lyceum events and other enhancing programs. This has enabled me to find out more about my heritage."

Robert Banks — SOPHOMORE

"I feel the most positive aspect of WSSU is its willingness to offer help and tutorial services to the student body. This is an important aspect because it shows that the faculty, and administration are concerned for those who have trouble in certain areas of study. Students have access to the learning center in Brown Hall, the writing center in the Communication Building and some private tutoring as well. All of these areas play an important part in the academic progress of the students."

Russell Miller — FRESHMAN

"This University has the surroundings that can make anyone feel comfortable. Making a home away from home is the first step to becoming a good student."

Dana Slade — JUNIOR

"I feel that I have gained a great sense of confidence since coming to WSSU. I've learned to speak out against things that are wrong. SU has taught me how to express myself. This is quite a change for me."

Dwight Bryant — JUNIOR

"The closeness of a small campus cuts down the congestion found at larger institutions. I came to WSSU because of the reputable academic programs. We have a well structured teacher education program and the campus life has activities that are suitable for everybody."

SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT SPEAK OUT

David A. Berry — SENIOR

"There are so many positive aspects about WSSU. Singling out the most positive is difficult. I personally believe that the most positive aspect of this grand old institution is that it provides a quality education in an excellent location at a reasonable cost."

Sherry Thompkins — FRESHMAN

Winston-Salem State is an extraordinary university, they teach you not to be passive but how to go out and conquer your dreams.

Robert Robbins — SOPHOMORE

"WSSU's small size allows for individualized instruction. It's great to know my instructors know me by name and not by number which would probably be the case at larger universities."

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Cooperative Education is a program which relates academic study to the real world work. The student participants in Cooperative Education augment and enhance their academic preparation with off-campus, work experience related to their major fields of study. Students enrolled in the Co-op program gain confidence, maturity, success-orientation and an understanding of the professional, practical world of work. Thus Co-op is, for the students, a "gateway to their professions."

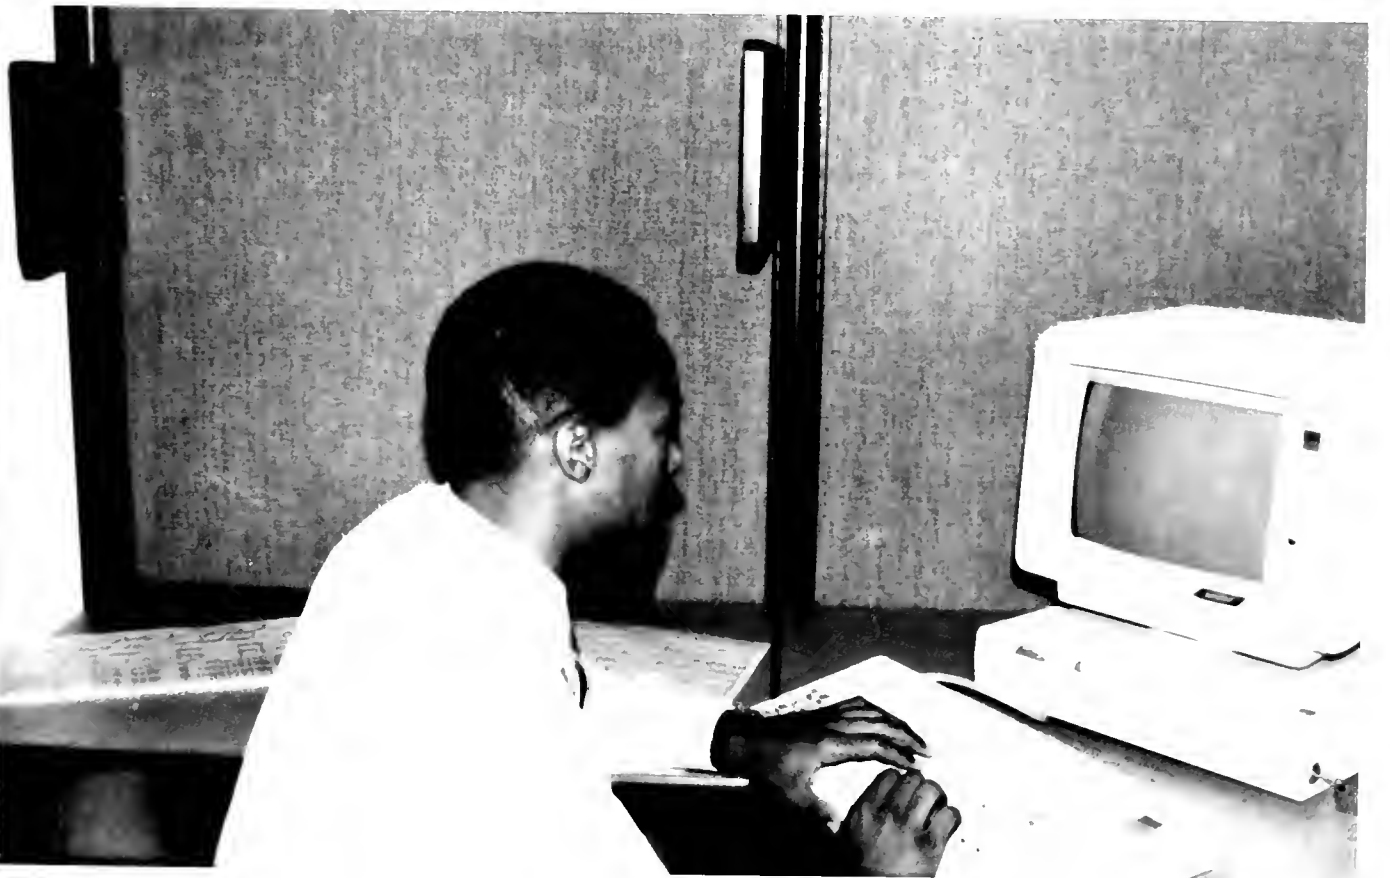

For the participating companies and agencies, Co-op offers the opportunity to influence the direction of higher education, become directly involved in the academic career of future employees, and observe their work before professional contracts are signed.

They Work Hard

How do students remain in school and handle a job at the same time? No one knows exactly but we have many students who have to cope with that problem. Having a part time job helps extinguish the high cost of a college education. With inflation soaring, many undergraduates find it impossible to function without some type of income and some students have to support themselves while in school. Without a doubt, Rams have infiltrated the working community in every imaginable occupation.

ON CAM

Looking for me! Is that so, you'll never guess all the places I've been, where I have stood and looked at you and all the things you do.

Now that a long hard year has passed, I am forced under pressure to reveal myself and tell of my experiences through snooping.

Dr. H.L. Wilson, our acting chancellor was my first victim or should I say the Shah of F.R.A.M. I listened while he gave his State of the Campus Address, peered through a window and actually caught him seated on his throne, with, check this out, pretty maids in a row standing behind him. Tell me he's not tough!

Now let's talk about the students, strange — you see, my understanding was that WFSU is an institution of higher education — not a place for higher male-female relations.

Not only that, but students here lead normal healthy lives. President Sheila Reagan gives weekly news conferences. She speaks her mind on student abuse. She feels students have to study too long, sometimes 3+ hours a day. This allows for no time to do the important things in life, like eat, sleep, and —

When not in the classroom students try to apply what they have learned to real life experiences. This is a good example what they have learned in a Communications course. "Eye Contact"! What's this — a new dance — the Walk! This guy is trying to use what he learned in a Psychology course. I don't think this lady is going for it.

Campus life is one of the most exciting aspects of college life. Ask anyone at the end of a given year and they'll probably tell you that if they could do it over they would do it again, but a different way — with a different partner. Our students come from all over. I captured Miss Northern Connection: an immigrant from the Big Apple. She wasn't allowed to smile there for fear of the theft of her teeth.

I caught Ole Mack one day and asked him what was for lunch . . . His response "Kibbles and Bits, Kibbles and Bits, I'm going to feed them more Kibbles and Bits." From the look on this student's face she wasn't coming from the cafe. If she had been coming from there this would have been her reaction: "I'm tired of hamburgers, I'm tired of H-a-m-b-u-r-g-e-r-s!!!"

*I even caught people doing what they enjoy most "NOTHING".
Students here are really on top of things. They have made up their own set of rules to follow. Rules No 1 - Study hard and don't throw down the wrong card.*

Rule No 2 - Keep in shape. Work out every day.

Rule No 3 - Eat good healthy junk food.

Did you ever wonder about what three guys might be talking about if they didn't know you were listening? Well, I tuned in on a conversation between D, L.V.Y., AC, and TRUCK on the typical WESU male subject.

AC: "Hey man do you see that?"

Truck: "Yeah, Fine isn't it."

Danny: "Kuh, I wouldn't mind having some of that".

AC: "Man I had some last night, it was good."

Truck: "Think you can get some more?"

AC: "Yes, Let's go get it together."

Danny: "I hope they have dark meat"

Well, can you believe it, they were not talking about women, but FOOD. The last time I saw them they were lickin' their fingers. They had no idea I was watching and listening from on high.

Didn't think I knew did you? I bet you would never guess from where I watched you. Yes, I saw you when you didn't see me. Wondering where I was. I stood over by that tree and watched you in many places, doing many things. You thought you were so smart, but I saw you on the same bench with somebody elses honey. Have you gotten angry with me yet? Don't be upset. I haven't told you who I am but since I am on my way out I guess I should.

ACTION SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS

Annette brings the old saying life, "action speaks louder than words." Let her actions show that she works as hard in the books as she does on the basketball court.

A native of Davidson, N.C., she transferred from Chowan Junior College and has proved to be an asset to the Lady Rams basketball team. She majors in Physical Education and maintains a 3.4 on a 4.0 scale. At the same time, she managed to average 12 points and 6 rebounds per game.

Last year at the peak of her collegiate career, Annette was named CIAA Female Scholar Athlete of the Year; Tom Harris Outstanding Female Athlete Scholar and awarded a medalion.

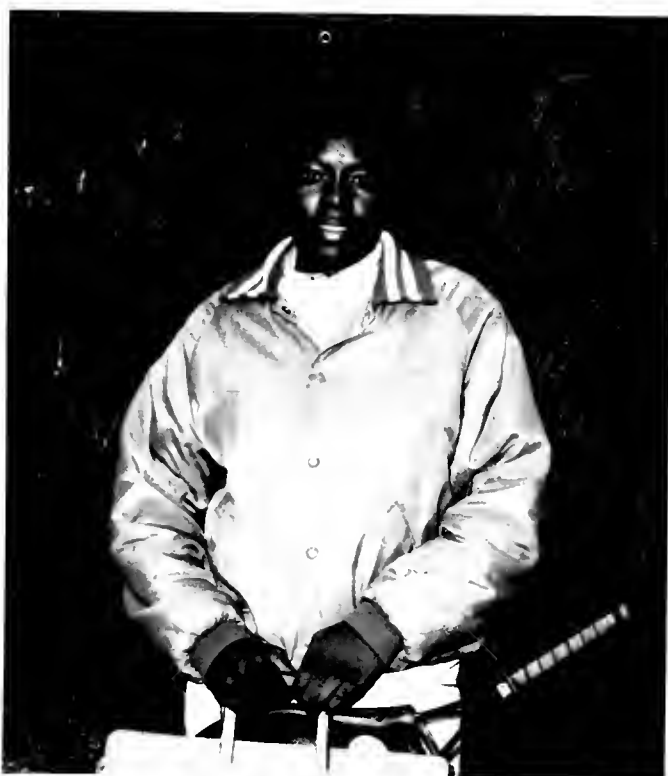

This goes to show that work and play go hand-in-hand. "CONGRATULATIONS ANNETTE, KEEP UP THE HARD WORK."

PROJECT STRENGTHEN IN JAPAN

During the month of September, Winston-Salem State University presented papers at an international research conference. The school was the only undergraduate university invited to the annual meeting of the world's top immunologists, the Reticuloendothelial Society. The Tenth International Congress was held in Ito, Japan, where fifteen countries were represented along with one predominantly black institution of higher learning, Winston-Salem State University.

Dr. Wilveria B. Atkinson and five students wrote a paper about their research and presented it to other scientists at the symposium. The students who attended were Phyllis A. Bass, G. Bradley Atkinson, Candis L. Black, Jacquese O. Black, and Terri L. Hamilton.

Dear Rams,

This yearbook is not just a book of pictures placed on a page; it represents the life and blood of WSSU, the students and faculty. As a member of this family I have grown and matured with the guidance of Miss Cassandra V. Douglas and Mr. Beaufort O. Bailey, for without their patience, caring, understanding and love I would not have pulled through.

In my eyes no one could have asked for a better staff than the one I was blessed with. Their willingness to work hard and put in extra time has helped to produce a book I know you will be proud to show. This book represents a family effort and without each member of the family pulling together it would not have been completed.

I would like to thank the Ram yearbook staff for their dedication and hard work for making this book a success.

And special thanks to Richard Bailey, Stanley and Madison Harding (The Hardy Boys), Brent Wilson, Valarie Goins, Rita Archer, Cynthia Jewell, my Mom and Dad and my lovely friend and co-editor Regeania McQuaig.

To the "Class of 1985" I would like to share with you a verse my Mom shared with me:

You were born with all the greatest have had
With your equipment they all began
So get hold of yourself and say "I CAN."

Look them over, the wise and the great
They take their food from a common plate
With similar knives and forks they use
With similar laces they tie their shoes
The world considered them brave and smart
But you're all they had when they made their start
You are the handicapped you must face
You are the one who must choose your place
You must say where you want to go
How much you will study the truth to know
God has equipped you with life; you see
But he lets you decide what you want to be

So, figure it out for yourself

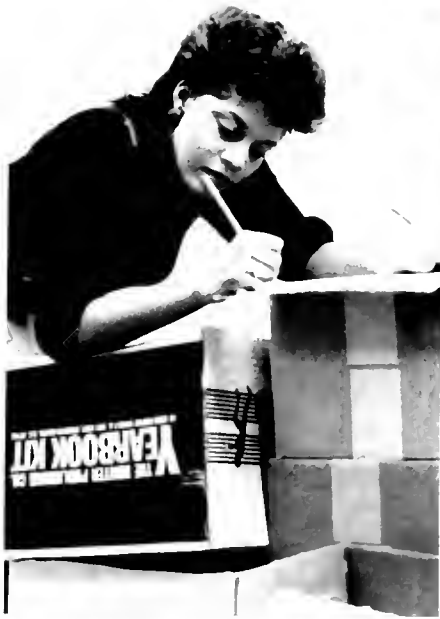

You were born with all the greatest have had
2 hands, 2 arms, 2 legs, 2 eyes, and a brain to use
If you would be wise,
With this equipment they all began
So get hold of yourself and say "I CAN."

Unknown

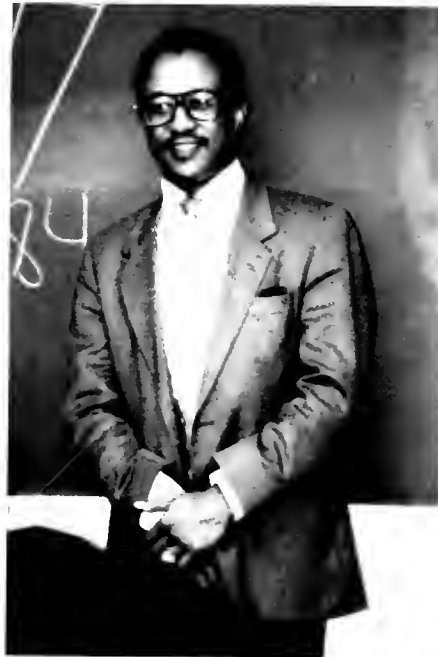

Yours truly

Dear Dr. Haywood L. Wilson, Jr. We are sorry we cannot give you more time and hurry your work. We hope to give you a smile or a kind word, but where appropriate. Therefore it is essential that we take this opportunity to express some of our feelings toward you.

THANK YOU for making sacrifices in order to insure the well being of our beloved learning institution. THANK YOU for taking time to come from behind your desk in order to help the students at registration time, for without your help things could have been disastrous. THANK YOU for being so easy to talk to. We've learned how to look behind that stern look in order to see your caring heart. THANK YOU for showing your school spirit at all times. You seem to be a proud father of your baby Rams. This encourages and motivates us. THANK YOU for being our bridge over troubled waters. You stepped in at the time of need and gave us something that we never expected — a father, a mother, a friend and a leader all rolled into one enthusiastic Acting Chancellor — Dr. Haywood L. Wilson, Jr.

May the goodness in you continue to shine. GOD BLESS YOU.

THE WSSU STUDENT BODY
